

CELTA

Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

Looking for a new qualification? One which is recognised both in Austria and abroad? A Cambridge Certificate in English Language Teaching to Speakers of other Languages (CELTA) can lead to a fulfilling and rewarding career!

What is the CELTA?

The Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (CELTA) is an introductory course for people who aim to become English Language Teachers. The CELTA is primarily pursued by candidates with little or no teaching experience, or by teachers with some experience but no formal teaching qualification. The course introduces candidates to the basics of lesson planning and successful classroom management and equips candidates with the practical skills they need to successfully teach in a variety of English Language Teaching contexts around the world.

Why should I get a CELTA?

The CELTA is a highly respected qualification from Cambridge English, part of the University of Cambridge. It is an internationally recognised and sought-after certificate. Most reputable language schools in Vienna require a CELTA and even people with teaching experience find it very difficult to teach at a language school in Vienna without a CELTA.

Many people who decide to get a CELTA do so when they are looking for a change in their careers. They have backgrounds in other fields, but are interested in branching out or simply challenging themselves. The CELTA gives them the confidence to try out something new in a field which is highly regarded. Many of our trainees in Vienna have discovered that teaching is their passion while taking the CELTA course.

What are my career opportunities after earning a CELTA?

With a CELTA, you are qualified to teach at language schools in Vienna. The market in Vienna is mostly tailored towards Business English and many of the language schools will send you to a company to give in-house classes there. There are also opportunities to teach General English at language schools or adult education centres. The CELTA in Vienna gives you teaching practice in Business English as well as General English.

A MUST-HAVE FOR ALL THOSE WHO ARE LOOKING TO GET AWAY FROM 9-TO-5 OFFICE JOBS AND LOVE THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. I HAD A GREAT TIME AND MET MANY INTERESTING PEOPLE IN THE COURSE.
TERRY, 2015 CELTA GRADUATE

Having a CELTA also means that you can travel the world and work as an English Language Teacher. Language schools all over the world look for CELTA-trained teachers. The CELTA is a 120-hour course and is at level 5 on the Qualifications and Credit Framework. There are many online TESOL courses but these aren't accredited or internationally recognized like the CELTA is.

What will I learn on the CELTA?

There are two main components to the CELTA course: input and teaching practice. During the hands-on input sessions, you'll learn about teaching methodology and brush up on your language awareness, among other things. Teaching practice gives you a chance to create lesson plans and try out teaching approaches with real students. You'll get a significant amount of support from your tutors who are here to help you on your path to becoming a certified English Language Teacher.

Highlights of the course include:

- Principles of language teaching to adults
- Analysis of language from a learner's point of view
- Internationally recognised methods and techniques
- Development of language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing)
- Presentation and practice of language items in meaningful context
- Lesson planning and course design
- Observed teaching practice with two levels of students followed by feedback from experienced tutors approved by the University of Cambridge

I KNOW I CAN TAKE THE SKILLS LEARNED THROUGH CELTA WITH ME ON EVERY ADVENTURE AND KNOW I CAN TEACH WHEREVER I LAND!

The CELTA is assessed on a continual basis throughout the course; there is no final exam.

Is the course hard?

Well, yes! The CELTA is a challenging and intensive course and you can expect to be quite busy for the duration of the course. However, our trainees regularly tell us how fulfilling and rewarding they found the course. Your tutors on the course support you throughout.

THE CELTA IS NO WALK IN THE PARK, BUT IT DEFINITELY TRANSFORMS YOU INTO A CREDIBLE AND PROFESSIONAL TEACHER SO THE HARD WORK IS MORE THAN WORTH IT. WOULD I DO IT AGAIN? WITHOUT HESITATION. TAKE MY ADVICE AND GO FOR IT...

Each tutor started out his/her teaching career with a CELTA and additionally has a DELTA or other diploma in English Language Teaching. You will have two to three different tutors and each adds something unique to the instruction and feedback.

THE CELTA-COURSE WAS A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE AND EXCEEDED MY EXPECTATIONS BY FAR GIVING ME ALL THE SUPPORT I NEEDED AT ANY TIME AND PREPARING ME EXCELLENTLY FOR "REAL-LIFE-TEACHING".

MICHAELA, 2014 CELTA GRADUATE

Hello there! I'm a Business English Trainer and Lecturer with 21 happy years in the line of duty. I did my CELTA with IH Madrid; then spent my first 3 years learning the ropes in Hungary and Germany before returning to Spain to study the DELTA at IH Barcelona. Over the last 17 years in Austria, my bread and butter has been CELTA training at BFI and external lecturing for the University of Applied Sciences in Vienna, St. Pölten, Eisenstadt and Wiener Neustadt. I also spent 7 years as in-company trainer for REWE AG and 13 years as a Cambridge Examiner.

Hi! I'm a US American lecturer and teacher trainer who moved to Vienna many moons ago in 1997. I studied business and somehow stumbled over teaching, discovering to my surprise that I love it and it is my calling. I got my CELTA here at BFI (yay!) and then a DELTA. Now I teach in-company courses, lecture at a couple of University of Applied Sciences, and tutor the CELTA (by far my favorite gig). I'm very involved with the International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language (IATEFL) and love being a part of a network of English language professionals, both here in Austria and abroad. (Lawrie)

How much time does the CELTA take?

We offer three courses a year: a 4-month part-time course in the spring, a 1-month full-time course in the summer and a 2-month half-time course in the fall.

The spring part-time course meets every Saturday morning and every Tuesday evening and is perfect for people with a job or other commitments or who just want to take some more time to work through the course. The summer full-time course is an intensive course which meets eight hours a day for four weeks. This course is optimal for teachers or other people who have summers free or who want to get their certificate relatively quickly. Our half-time course in the fall takes place all day Mondays and Wednesdays, so is designed for those who work part-time or just want some more time to process the content than the full-time course offers.

In addition to the course times, you'll need to dedicate about 120 hours to plan your lessons and write your assignments.

Where does the course take place?

The only centre in Austria authorised to deliver CELTA courses is BFI. The CELTA takes place at BFI's location in Vienna's third district, right next to the U3 underground station "Schlachthausgasse".

Alfred-Dallinger-Platz 1

Why should I take the CELTA in Vienna?

The CELTA centre at BFI is a small, intimate centre with only three courses a year. Unlike other large centres which can be impersonal and indifferent to participants' needs, here in Vienna we are a close family. We take the time to coach our trainees and ensure that their CELTA experience is a positive, life-changing one. Because of the close contact and mentoring between tutors and trainees, the CELTA centre in Vienna has higher than average end grades compared to centres around the world.

What are the prerequisites for attending the course?

In order to be accepted on the CELTA course, you need to:

- be at least 18 years old, but preferably over 20,
- be competent in written and spoken English (C1+/C2),
- have a level of education equivalent to that which allows you to attend a university,
- be able to handle a stressful workload and demonstrate the potential to teach,

ORGANISATIONS REQUIRING THE CELTA CERTIFICATE AS A QUALIFICATION HAVE PROVEN TO BE MUCH MORE PROFESSIONAL, MORE DEVOTED TO THEIR TRAINERS AND TO BETTER ENGLISH TEACHING AND MORE DEDICATED TO CONTINUED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT.
CYNTHIA, 2008 CELTA GRADUATE

BFI VIENNA IS A GREAT PLACE TO DO THE CELTA. WE COULD TALK TO OUR EXPERIENCED TRAINERS ANY TIME AND THEY WERE ALWAYS READY TO HELP. THEY WALKED US HAND IN HAND THROUGH THE ALMOST MORTALLY TOUGH CELTA ENDEAVOR AND I CAN TELL YOU, ONCE YOU HAVE SURVIVED, YOU SEE THAT THEY ARE AMAZING ROLE MODELS IN THE PROFESSION YOU ARE ABOUT TO PURSUE.
MIZUMO, 2016 CELTA GRADUATE
